Transfiguration of the Lord

Transfiguration of the Lord

Today's feast of the transfiguration of Jesus is one of those gospel events that steps out of the ordinary as does, for example, the account of the baptism of Jesus by John. Both involve the presence of the divine and the divinely inspired. I think of the transfiguration as something like "coming attractions." The event takes place near the end of Jesus' public ministry and seems to act as a glimpse into the very near future -- Jesus' death and resurrection.

Jesus leads three of his disciples, Peter, James and John into this special scene and then astounding events unfolded before their eyes: "he was transfigured" before them; his "face shone like the sun;" and his garments became "white like the light." Peter responded by acknowledging "how good it is for us to be here." And then the cloud, the ancient sign of the very presence of God overshadowed them, and the voice, "This is my beloved Son, listen to him."

What on earth is going on here? From our historical perspective we can look back and say that the disciples were given a preview of the glory that belongs to Jesus after his death and resurrection and in the fullness of the Kingdom of God. They don't know it now, but that is the same glory that they will be given after they bring the message of the Kingdom to their contemporaries.

What a special moment for them, and also for us who receive the promise of ultimate glory from Jesus through God's generous love. We are invited to plumb the depths of this astonishing transfiguration moment in the lives of Jesus and the disciples.

I usually think of the "glory" of Jesus at the moment of the transfiguration being associated with his resurrection. But the truth is that BOTH the suffering/death of Jesus AND the resurrection represent to us the glory the Son has received from the Father.

Scripture scholar, Tom Wright, invites his readers to discover a parallel between this transfiguration moment and the crucifixion of Jesus. It can be compared and contrasted schematically this way:

Transfiguration

Jesus revealed in GLORY
His clothes SHINING WHITE
Jesus with MOSES & ELIJAH
Surrounded by SHINING CLOUD

Crucifixion

Jesus revealed in SHAME
Clothes roughly STRIPPED OFF
Jesus with TWO THIEVES
DARKNESS covers the land

The mount-top view of transfiguration gets its meaning from the hill-top of Golgotha and vice-versa. Our invitation is to acknowledge the glory in the crucifixion. Our lives are filled with experiences that we could describe as transfigurations: think of the birth of a child; honors coming from the hard work of getting an education; truly enjoying the benefits of good health. And our lives are filled with crucifixion experiences as well: the loss of a job or economic instability; the loss of a loved one to death; the pain of illness. The list can go on, and we are all called to be attentive to both types of experiences -- those by which I am transfigured and those that are a crucifixion to me. The same glory shines through both of these real life situations if we but let it in, and in so doing we let Christ in at ever-deeper levels of our lives.

Prayer: Lord, help me to live in the reality of Christ's life, death and resurrection in my own life. Let me be more deeply aware of Jesus' presence.

ST. PIUS X PARISH

Sign up for Children's Sacramental Preparation

Just a reminder that completion of the Sacraments of Initiation for children is a two-year process. Classes are held weekly during the school year and provide a child-friendly opportunity to grow in faith and community. We hope these classes will be a great resource to you as you share Christ's love with your child.

The first year usually coincides with first grade. Please note: The first year of Sacramental Preparation may be completed in one of two ways:

- Attendance in the Billings Catholic Schools
- Attendance in a Parish Children's Ministry class

The second year of classes will include sacramental preparation and reception of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and the completion of the Sacraments of Initiation: Confirmation and First Eucharist. This is only offered through the parish and not in the Catholic schools.

Registration forms for classes are now available on the tables in the Gathering Area, online through the Children's Ministry webpage, or at the parish office. Classes begin on September 26 or 27. The deadline to register is Friday, August 25.

There will be a registration and volunteer information table in the Gathering Area of church next week-end. Any questions? Please contact Jessie at 281-8502 or email her at jr@stpiusxblgs.org.

Bringing Eucharist and Prayer

Is a loved one hospitalized or homebound? Please contact Mary Carol at the parish office (656-2522) if you or someone in your family is hospitalized, enters a care facility or is homebound. Outreach Committee members are trained and ready to visit with communion and prayers. We don't know if someone wants a visit without your call.

Pictured above: Sarah Rachac, parishioner, Young Adult leadership team, and music minister shared her "Untold Story" at a recent Bread of Life Mass. Her personal journey with Hospice began in high school as her father, Ed, was in his end-of-life stage and continues into her current professional position with Riverstone Hospice. It has been a powerful experience for her as she works with volunteers in all facets from running errands to sitting with the patient. Sarah stated: I get to work with these volunteers every day and they are just such a powerful witness to me. They just bring Christ to people in a very direct way, and it is such a humbling experience to watch. If you want to learn more about how you might help as a Hospice volunteer, please contact Riverstone Hospice at 651-6500 and ask for Sarah.

Survey for 16-29-year olds Around the World

The Synod of Bishops will meet in 2018 and focus on youth. An online questionnaire is available for youth in the 16-29-year old age range. Collected data will help the Bishops better understand the lives, attitudes and concerns of surveyed individuals. Find the survey at <https://survey-synod2018.glauco.it/limesurvey/index.php/147718>. The Pak-A-Kid for School Project Begins This Week!

The Pak-A-Kid for School project provides a filled backpack for students associated with Angela's Piazza: Women's Drop In Center, Family Promise of Yellowstone Valley and students in our own parish whose families have limited income.

How the backpack project works:

Simply pick up a backpack after Mass today and purchase items from the school supply list tucked in one of the pockets. Put the supplies in the backpack and return it to the shopping cart in the Gathering Area of church or to the parish office (open M-F from 8:30am-4:30pm) between now and Sunday, August 20.

Or if you don't take a backpack: you may also donate school supplies for general purposes (see suggestion list at right). These items will be used to create last minute backpacks or will be donated to various schools or helping agencies in our community. Drop your supplies off in the shopping cart display or parish office between now and Sunday, August 20.

Thank you for supporting education and local youth! This project is sponsored by the St. Pius Christian Service Commission.
