Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

*This is the day the Lord has made,
let us rejoice and be glad!
Alleluia! Alleluia!*

Together, Let's Grow as Disciples!

Welcome! If you are from out of town and are joining us for worship or are new to our parish, we hope that you will find warmth and hospitality here! St. Pius X is a vibrant parish with many ways to be engaged. Thank you for choosing to worship with us today! If you would like more information on registration or activities or ministries that are offered for people of all ages, please contact the parish office at (406) 656-2522. You may also visit our website at www.stpiusxblgs.org or find us on Facebook at 'St. Pius X.'

We Give Thanks

We give thanks to all those at our liturgies who preside at our prayer, welcome God's people, proclaim God's Word, lead and inspire us in song, serve the altar as acolytes, prepare our liturgies and worship space, live-stream our Masses and minister the Holy Eucharist to us. We are thankful for all who pray and celebrate with us this day!

Ladies: High Tea is Back!

Court St. Cecelia's Catholic Daughters is hosting their annual High Tea at St. Pius X, in the Fellowship hall on Tuesday, April 19 starting at 12:00pm. This is your chance to show off your Easter dresses (remember that), hat and gloves. This is always a fun gathering! The Catholic Daughters welcome all guests to join them!

Let's Call Each Other By Name!

This Easter season is a great time to welcome one another by name and since we all can use some help in remembering names, we once again share "Name Tag Weekend!" Introduced in January of 2020, we brought it back last fall during Advent. This is a wonderful way to meet one another and to journey together in dynamic discipleship as we get to know one another's names as we gather to celebrate the Eucharist.

As you enter the church's Gathering Area next weekend, prior to each Mass, you will find name tags and pens on card tables. We ask that you write your name on a tag and put it on so that during Mass and after you are able to help others identify your name and you theirs. God calls us each by name so may we do so to one another!

Congratulations Newly Initiated! Encounter Jesus Like Never Before!

This Easter season, please keep the following people in your prayers as they experience a time of Mystagogia after being fully initiated into our Catholic faith through the initiation sacraments. They participated in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) and the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults adapted for children. Let us welcome them to our parish community: Darrah, Link, Jake, Emily, Jonah, Kris, Gradey, Collin, Grace, Jordyn and Jaxon.

Graduating Seniors!

Invitations for our Baccalaureate Mass at St. Pius X at 11:00am on Sunday, May 15 have been mailed. Be sure to join the reception after in the Fellowship Hall!

Please mail your reply card back to the parish office by May 2. If you did not receive one, please call the parish office at (406) 656-2522 so we can correct our records. We go by birthdates and/or class year, so we may either have a birth date or class year incorrectly associated with your name. We want to honor ALL of our graduating seniors from all schools at Baccalaureate on May 15!

St. Michael's Circle Welcomes Parish Women

St. Michael's Circle will meet in the parish center on Friday, April 22 at 12:00pm. Hope to see you there! Guests are always welcome and we love new members!

Children's Ministry...Our last class will be April 24 and 27. Second-year sacramental preparation families: see you at the mandatory rehearsal of the sacramental celebration on Wednesday, May 4 at 6:30pm in the Sanctuary.

Everyday Stewardship: Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments

Leave It in the Tomb

Today, on the most important day of the liturgical year, the Apostle Paul is calling us out.

"I see you hiding in that tomb," he says. "I see you baking with that old, stale yeast, thinking no one will notice."

He says it a little more elegantly, I'll grant you. But the message is this: If you want to be raised with Christ, you'd better be ready to step out of the shadows. Seek what is above — not what is on earth.

I can feel myself responding almost reflexively, "Great idea, Paul — but I'm pretty comfy here." Because sometimes, it's just easier to stay in the tomb. It's easier to crouch in the shadows and look outward at everyone else, thinking of the changes they could make or the sins they could overcome.

Today we are called to embrace newness. New hearts, new lives, new futures, new chances. If there's anything keeping you from that, you need to leave it in the tomb. It's a little scary, sure — maybe Jesus thought so before he stepped into the light of that first Easter morning. But no loaf of bread worth eating was ever baked using stale yeast that wouldn't rise. No new life worth having was ever lived through the broken sins of yesterday. No Easter morning ever dawned without the tomb sitting empty.

Step into the light. He is waiting for you.

Scripture Reflection:

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Acts 10:34, 37-43
Psalm 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23
Colossians 3:1-4
John 20:1-9

There are many stones in our paths that keep us from truly living and being free. Some of these boulders have been there for a very long time. They have been there so long that they have even settled into the soil of our lives with other weeds, vines, and compacted soil keeping them firmly in place. We find them hard to move and trying to do so can be exhausting. What are these suffocating albatrosses that keep us so tethered and immobile? They are many things.

They are past childhood wounds and hurts that stem from disappointment, rejection, or abuse. People may have told us we were unwanted, that the world is frightening, that there are only some acceptable feelings you can have and others you cannot. We may have tried to love someone or struggled to figure out how and were met with rejection. Maybe we trusted someone completely and were betrayed. We come to life collecting barnacles that begin to attach to other barnacles and before you know it, we have a mass of solid matter blocking our vision and keeping us from moving. We live in fear. We are afraid of losing what we have, afraid that the future will be empty, afraid that we won't succeed and even more afraid that we will not be loved. There is so much fear. Didn't Jesus tell us not to worry and to not be afraid? Either we believe in the message of Easter, or we don't!

Go confidently into the night. Walking with God you will find the light and strength you need. Often without even knowing, God will move those boulders and stumbling blocks that bind us and, with putting one foot in front of the other and looking forward, we will move. The resurrection of Christ is really all about receiving the gifts of trust and faith and doing new things. The rocks that bind us keep us spinning the same wheels and doing the same things. When was the last time you threw caution to the wind and actually did something totally out of character and different? This is where we find God, in the spontaneous, the adventurous, the fun, and the creative choices we make! God is not boring and stuck. God is exciting and engaging. Jesus Christ is risen from the dead! Find a way to trust that this is true and live. ©LPi
