Youth and Adults, Make a Joyful Noise!

Parish Choir will meet in the sanctuary on Tuesdays from 7-8:30pm beginning September 7th. No audition required!

Youth Choir will meet in the sanctuary on Wednesdays from 3:30 – 4:30pm beginning September 29th. Students in grades 1-8 are invited to join. Please contact Joan at (406) 281-8509 or by email at joan@stpiusxblgs.org for more information. We need your voices to truly celebrate our weekend Masses!

Sacraments of Christian Initiation are Available

Are you—or someone you know—seeking a personal encounter with Jesus through our Church's sacraments?

Have you been Baptized?

Have you been Confirmed?

Have you received First Eucharist?

We promise to assist you in every way possible. We will walk you through our parish's sacramental initiation process.

Everyone is welcome! Become a disciple of Jesus Christ. Contact Matt Low in our parish office, 656-2522. Let him know your unique story and how the Good News of Jesus is calling you further into the Catholic Church.

Young disciples, Henry and Harrison help load one of several vehicles with backpacks to deliver to Angela's Piazza: Women's Drop In Center. Their exuberance for this task touched us all! It's time for school!

Prayer for Beginning a New School Year

Loving and gracious God, your Spirit of wisdom fills the earth and teaches us your ways. Look upon our students. Let them enjoy their learning and help them to persevere in their studies. Look upon our educators. Let them share their knowledge with gentle patience. Grant that students and teachers alike may be protected from all harm by your Holy Spirit, and also follow Jesus Christ, the way, the truth, and the life, for ever and ever. Amen. (Adapted from the Catholic Book of Blessings.)

Why Register at St. Pius X?

Because we can stay in touch and take advantage of opportunities to grow in the love of Christ together! If you regularly attend Mass at St. Pius X Parish, please have your name added to our parish records. Adult members of your family who are no longer living at home and are self-sufficient may register separately. If you will be moving or are no longer attending Mass, please call to update your information. To register for the first time or to update your records, please contact Rita at the Parish office, 656-2522. You can also register on our website: www.stpiusxblgs.org.

RCIA: Inquiring Hearts and Minds Want to Know More

We have an RCIA Inquiry Session scheduled for interested individuals on Sunday, August 29th between the two Sunday Masses—9:45am to 10:45am—in the Day Chapel of church.

Are you—or someone you know—interested in the Roman Catholic process of the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA)? In the RCIA, the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist are offered to those who have not received them.

This formation process becomes a spiritual journey where the participant enters into a deeper understanding of the Catholic faith, and hopefully a more personal relationship with Jesus.

Here at St. Pius X Parish we can walk you through each stage of this process.

So, what are some of your typical questions? Examples can vary: My children are not baptized and have not received religious instruction; what do you suggest? I have a child who is getting older and has not been baptized; do you provide sacramental instruction? I am a middle-aged man—not Catholic—but I've been attending Sunday Mass with my wife for years; is it too late to enter the Catholic faith?

Our parish community offers opportunities in small group settings to learn about the Catholic faith and to become fully initiated members through the church's sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist. Our parish offers separate sessions for children and teenagers.

Everyone is welcome to become a disciple of Jesus. We are all on a spiritual journey, learning more. Please feel free to contact, Matt Low, at the parish office, 656-2522. Let him know your story. How is God working in your life? See you at our next Inquiry Session. Peace and God's continued Blessings ~ Matt Low.

Students Benefited

The Pak-A-Kid for school delivery day blessed 112 students in School District 2 with perfectly filled backpacks. In addition, these seven schools benefited from your generosity with boxes filled with loose supplies: Orchard, Ponderosa, McKinley, Broadwater, Newman, Riverside Middle School and Senior High.

A sheet of paper accompanied each box saying, "Thank you Educators and Support Staff for all you do for our children. You are appreciated!! Hope you can utilize some loose supplies for kids that might not have all they need. From parishioners of St. Pius X Catholic Church."

Thank you to the members of the Christian Service Commission of our parish and volunteers who called to help with sorting and delivering for this project. St. Pius X is truly a community of generosity rooted in faith!

In and Around Our Parish Community

Coming to Mass? Could You Help us Worship?

We need your help, St. Pius X community, for our liturgical ministry! Your support at any Mass is welcome and much appreciated!

Live Stream Operators: If you like technology, this is for you! A live-stream crew member arrives at least 15 minutes before the 11:00am Mass. They operate the live-stream computer and cameras in a designated alcove area in the church during Mass. With the use of three cameras, joy stick control and OBS broadcast software, the operator produces the live streaming of Mass. Volunteers for this position rotate Sundays and/or daily Mass and special liturgies. Training is provided. Please call Kathy at 656-2522 to view the equipment and find out more!

What is the Role of Catholics in Society?

We live in a country that upholds the separation of Church and state. What is the role of Catholics in society?

Answer: The role of the Church in the world has taken different forms over time, but the theme is the same. Be disciples in it! As the lay faithful — that is, not vowed priest or religious — we are called to live and love in the circumstances of our daily lives. St. John Paul II wrote a document about the laity. In it he wrote, "In their situation in the world God manifests His plan and communicates to them their particular vocation of seeking the Kingdom of God by engaging in temporal affairs and by ordering them according to the plan of God" (On the Lay Members of Christ's Faithful, 15).

God wants us in the hospitals, the board rooms, the law offices, the food pantries, and the little league games! We are to engage in the affairs of the world. But when we're there, we should live the plan of God. We need to respect those around us, engage in just business and legal practices, and love our children. We should care for the earth, use our money wisely, and get to know our neighbors. We must advocate for social policies that respect human dignity and human freedom. No matter our state in life, we are invited to build the kingdom of God!

Scripture Reflection:

Twenty-first

Joshua 24:1-2, 15-18

Sunday in

Psalm 34:2-3, 16-21

Ordinary Time

Ephesians 5:21-32

John 6:60-69

"Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods." We struggle with our gods. They appear in the forms of things like money, power, prestige, popularity, privilege, and self-fulfillment. We like these "gods" because they make us feel good and ask very little of us in return. When we worship them, we worship ourselves. How can you go wrong with that? We buy into the illusion that if something can give us a comfortable life, free of want and need, then it is worth setting other things aside to pursue it. In essence, we sell our souls. Our struggle with "who is God" and to whom do we belong is a real one and one that can easily find us empty and experiencing disillusionment.

The devil tempted Jesus in the desert and promised him more. We are promised "more." But in pursuing the more we lose track of the cost, and the cost is great. We sacrifice our very life in pursuit of something disguised as life. We sacrifice truth for something that only "feels" true. While the true and real God certainly promises us many things, many things are also required. It is not about the warm and secure feelings and self-absorption the world wants to provide, but of giving back. There can be no lukewarm stance with regard to faith. If we are in, then faith in Jesus Christ asks us to do some difficult things: work in service of God's kingdom (not our own), love our enemies, offer no resistance to injury, that we must die to ourselves in order to find ourselves, and trust that Jesus truly gives us his flesh and blood to eat and drink. These are hard things to accept and even harder to put into practice. It is no wonder that many, who may be attracted to Jesus at first, walk away in pursuit of the more self-satisfying gods.

But truth is truth. If we cannot accept it from the lips of Jesus Christ, then where else will we find it? To whom can we go? There is only one source of truth and life, Jesus Christ. Jesus has the words of eternal life and if we do not go to him, then where else will we find this gift? But we must be faithful and buy into the whole package deal that requires sacrifice and fidelity. When we do, we find ourselves, through the Body and Blood of Christ, connected to the Source of all life and then intimately bound with our brothers and sisters. We all have to decide whether we want to stay or go and if we can accept what Jesus has to say. It's a choice we all have to make.
