Thank you! By feeding the hungry, you are participating in a Corporal Work of Mercy!

Left: Betty Warner sorts school supplies and fills some last minute school backpacks for kids. Others who shared the fun activity of sorting were Gail Kleman, Mary Stordahl and Shannon Behounek. Jan Bridger purchased a few specialty items we needed and Carolyn Gransberg and Susan Cranston used their retired teacher knowledge to fill boxes of loose school supplies for eight schools with low-income students.

Thank you to everyone who made this project possible! Over 100 backpacks were provided for children associated with Angela's Piazza: Women's Drop In Center, Family Promise, and our parish. Thank you to the St. Pius X Christian Service Commission who shepherded this project from beginning to end. Dynamic disciples believe in education!

Do you sing? Play an Instrument? The St Pius Music Ministry Needs You!

The St. Pius X Music Ministry is looking for musically gifted disciples to join our ministry. St. Pius is blessed to have both an adult and youth choir in addition to five ensembles. All groups are looking for additional vocalists and instrumentalists. Our choirs rehearse weekly throughout the school year (see schedule below). Our ensembles set their own rehearsal schedules, but generally meet in the evening at least once a month. If you love to sing, or play an instrument and would like to share those talents to help lead our assembly in song, we would love to find the best fit for you.

- Parish Choir will meet in the sanctuary on Tuesdays from 6:30 – 8:00pm beginning September 13th. No audition required!
- Young Proclaimers, our Jr. High/High School ensemble, will meet in the sanctuary on Wednesdays from 4:30 – 5:30pm beginning September 14th.
- Youth Choir will meet in the sanctuary on Wednesdays from 3:30 – 4:30pm beginning September 28th. Students in grades Kindergarten-8 are invited to join. (Parents, especially of younger members, are always welcome to attend the rehearsals.)

Please contact Joan at 406.281.8509 or by email joan@stpiusxblgs.org for more information.

Welcome Back Weekend

So many changes the past few years...change is hard...yet our faith in Jesus Christ gave us hope! Let us rejoice that as Disciples we can once again gather together in a celebration of life! Welcome Back Weekend is...well...BACK! Summer memories are firmly settled in our minds, school has started, the leaves are changing, committees and meetings and all of fall is starting!

Moreover, this weekend will kick off the 25th anniversary of our church building! Mark your calendars for the Rededication Mass to be held 11am, Sunday, October 23 with Bishop Michael W. Warfel and Coadjutor Bishop Jeffrey M. Fleming. "Come Home to St. Pius X," that has a nice ring to it! See you this fall!

RCIA: Looking to Serve as a Catechist or a Sponsor?

Are you—or someone you know—interested in being a catechist, or a RCIA sponsor? Catechists and sponsors are integral participants in our parish's efforts to initiate children, teens, and adults into the faith. Our catechists help instruct and spiritually develop catechumens, neophytes, and those seeking the sacraments of initiation within the Roman Catholic faith.

Sponsors also play a meaningful role. Often, they find themselves being important foundational supporters of religious instruction by assisting persons going through the religious stages of formation. Sponsors bring to the process informed and prayerful lifestyles, positive attitudes, and good listening skills.

As we know, everyone is welcome to become a disciple of Jesus. We are all here on a spiritual journey—learning more, offering sacrificial love, and striving always to encounter the Risen Jesus. Please feel free to contact Matt Low at 406.281.8506 to discuss whether it fits for you to serve in this ministry with your unique gifts and talents.

Scripture Reflection:

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29
Psalm 68:4-7, 10-11
Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24
Luke 14:1, 7-14

People who are concerned with their own advancement and agenda have little room for anyone else. With an almost addictive pursuit of esteem and acknowledgment from others, they become little more than entitled embodiments of the vice of pride. Public humiliation or embarrassment can hit them hard. While avoiding humiliation and embarrassment may be advantageous to obtaining worldly success, they are much less desirable motivations for entering the Kingdom of God. Avoiding embarrassment is a self-serving motivation. Pride and all of its manifestations have no place on God's agenda, neither do worldly success and fulfillment. In fact, we have been clearly told that if we love our lives, we will lose them. Therefore, if you really want to find your true station in life, learn to give yourself away.

While this may sound foolish to secular ears, it actually makes perfect sense. God, who is love, makes each of us in His image. Love, and therefore God, is in our DNA. That being the case, love is never love if it is kept to oneself or hoarded. Love needs to be shared and given away. Therefore, it is the only proper motivation for entering the Kingdom of God. The door to happiness is only opened when we realize that all we are and all we have is due only to God's grace. Without God we are nothing.

Love is the remedy for pride and protects us from ourselves. God asks us to be humble. Only when we are free from the traps of pride and arrogance that we can begin to follow the path to true humility. Only one who is humble can rightly love and be of service to God. "God makes use only of the humble as his instruments (Jean-Pierre de Causade)." The humble one does not need others to give them worth and value. Their self-esteem comes from the much more secure foundation of God. Only those who are entirely free can give themselves freely to others. Love must always be our motivation for doing all things. Be content that God has invited you to the banquet of life. Concern yourself with accepting the invitation, and don't worry about where you will sit.
