Sixteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LISTEN

Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. - Lk 10:38-39

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Encounter Jesus Here

Welcome! If you are from out of town and are joining us for worship or are new to our parish, we hope that you will find warmth and hospitality here! St. Pius X is a vibrant parish with many ways to be engaged. Thank you for choosing to worship with us today! If you would like more information on registration or activities or ministries that are offered for people of all ages, please contact the parish office at (406) 656-2522. You may also visit our website at www.stpiusxblgs.org or find us on Facebook at 'St. Pius X.'

Rebuilding Outreach Ministry. Your Help is Essential.

One of the many hardships over the past couple years has been the inability of churches to take Eucharist to the homebound or to our brothers and sisters who live in senior living facilities. As Covid numbers have lowered, the Bishop has lifted the restrictions for homebound ministry. While there are ongoing precautions, we are answering Jesus' call, "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." (Matthew 25: 40) We are seeking disciples for Homebound & Senior Living Facility Eucharistic Ministry. Training will be provided. We will learn and grow together! If you are interested in taking Eucharist to those who are homebound or to one of the senior living facilities to which our parish is assigned, please call the office at (406) 656-2522. Your contact information will be given to Janice Krueger, whose heart feels compelled to help rebuild this ministry, and she will contact you. Your prayerful consideration is joined by the prayers of us all!

Pictured: a pyx used to take consecrated hosts to Catholic parishioners unable to attend Mass.

Above: In March, several dynamic disciples came together to do the initial hard work of getting our funeral luncheon ministry up and running after shutting down due to the pandemic. These ladies thoroughly cleaned the Fellowship Hall kitchen and cupboards: L-R Sheila McClintock, Frances Bopp, Mary Zeeck, and Kay Kappel are shown. Marge Larimer, Mary Landry, and Jackie Fears escaped the camera lens. Phil Zeeck washed dishes for hours! Thank you for your time to clean our shared spaces at church! Your spirit is inspiring!

How can you be the hands and feet of Jesus?

"For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them." Ephesians 2:10

Jesus is no longer with us in the physical form, so we are called to be the body of Christ. We are called to love one another, to be ambassadors for Jesus. We are empowered to serve. How can you help? Read on, my fellow disciple.

You might have heard – funeral lunches have returned after a two-year hiatus! The disciples of St. Pius X provide this hospitality ministry so that our grieving brothers and sisters in Christ can GATHER in our community to encounter Jesus and feel the LOVE of our community for them. This is an excellent ministry for those who don't want to commit to a large-scale project (volunteer to bring a food dish) or for those who have some time to spare (help in the kitchen). This is a ministry that will thrive with many volunteers to ensure that the needs of the funeral lunches will be met.

This time away has provided new opportunities for communication. The basic nuts and bolts of the ministry are the same: volunteers bring food for the funeral luncheon on the day of the funeral and there are people who work in the kitchen to serve those gathered to remember their loved one. So what has changed?

The biggest changes are in the process for initially notifying ministry volunteers. Through Flocknote communications (usually as an email), it is easy for organizers to send out initial food and helper needs according to expected luncheon size. To allow fairness and respect to all food volunteers, a food rotation has been set up that will kick into gear as we get going. This spreads out the requests to different individuals, while allowing flexibility depending on needs. Another wonderful feature is the ability to be more specific with what kind of food is requested – no more worrying about getting too many potato salads! Just choose what you want to bring or when you can help and hit the “Sign me up” button when you’re done. Reminders are sent when the signup closes.

If you have any questions or want to be placed on a call only list (you don’t use either email or a cell phone), please call Shannon in the parish office at (406) 656-2522. If you haven’t volunteered yet, you can still do that by using the QR codes to sign up directly:

Food volunteers:

and/or Kitchen helpers:

Thank you for being not only an ambassador for Jesus, but for being an ambassador for St. Pius X. It is because of volunteers like you serving in ministries that help others that we are such a vibrant parish!

Michelle Jacobs from LPi, our bulletin printer, is now securing new ads for our church bulletin. As a valuable member of the business community, we invite you to expand your reach and grow your business with a print ad in our parish bulletin. Contact Michelle at (253) 229-6354 to discuss options!

Honor a beloved priest today with the St. John Vianney Priest Tribute!

As Catholics, we know how important priests are in our lives. They consecrate their lives to God for our sake, making countless sacrifices to be able to offer us the Sacraments and their pastoral care. Good priests are truly one of God’s greatest gifts!

If your life has been touched by one of our many good shepherds, past or present, we invite you to thank him with a gift in his honor (or memory) through the Catholic Foundation of Eastern Montana’s St. John Vianney Tribute. St. John Vianney is the patron saint of parish priests!

On August 4, St. John Vianney’s feast day, our new Bishop Coadjutor Jeffrey Fleming will offer a special Mass for all the priests whom you and others have honored in this way.

The Foundation needs to receive the name of the priest you wish to honor, as well as your gift, by August 3 in order to enroll him in the St. John Vianney Mass. A flyer with more information is available in the Gathering Area of church or you may donate online by visiting www.catholicfoundationmt.org/priest-tribute or give the Foundation a call at (406) 315-1765 and we will help you make a gift over the phone.

RCIA: A Blessed Journey of Conversion is Just Around the Corner

Are you, or someone you know ready to go deeper into a personal relationship with Our Lord, Jesus Christ? Take that first step now—inquire and ask questions. Perhaps Jesus wants you to become a disciple in our Roman Catholic tradition. Typical questions include:

- I have a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized; do you provide sacramental instruction?
- I am a young man or woman who feels strongly that the Holy Spirit is calling me to enter the Catholic Church and to live a “new life in Christ.” Is it possible for me to receive the church’s sacraments of initiation at St. Pius X? What are the first steps?

Please know that our parish community offers opportunities in small-group settings to learn about the Catholic faith. You can become a fully initiated member through the church’s sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist. Our Sunday sessions focus on the teachings of Jesus, our Church doctrine, our sacred liturgy, scripture, and tradition. Keep in mind also that our parish offers separate sessions for children and teenagers.

You are welcome to participate in this journey of learning, faith, and discipleship. Contact staff member, Matt Low, in our parish office. Watch our parish bulletin for future inquiry session notices for those interested. In the meantime, may the Holy Spirit continue to bless you and move you into a fruitful life of love, joy, faith, hope, and peace.

In and Around Our Parish Community

Summer Needs at St. Vincent dePaul

At St. Vincent dePaul, there is always a need for personal hygiene products such as deodorant, toothbrushes, soap, shampoo, and wipes. The sock inventory for children, women, and men must be replenished. Donating peanut butter, jelly, and water is appreciated, too. Place all items in the blue cardboard box in the Gathering Area of church for direct donation to St. Vincent dePaul. (If you signed up via Flocknote to bring sandwich ministry items for St. Pius' Wednesday sack lunches, please put those donations in the marked blue shopping basket in the Gathering Area.) SVdP wishes to express thanks for your support. Call (406) 252-1855 for more information or to volunteer your time.

Backpacks Needed for Older Students

If you would like to donate a new backpack for an older student in middle or high school, please drop them off at the parish office. Our School Supply Drive will begin soon and this year we are short of that particular type. Questions? Call Shelly at (406) 656-2522.

Do we have your correct information?

If you are registered at St. Pius X, do we have your correct phone number? If you have dropped your landline or changed to a different phone number, please call Shannon at the parish office, at (406) 656-2522, or email updated information to shannonb@stpiusxblgs.org. The Parish Office staff continues to work on keeping the St. Pius registry of parishioners accurate. Also, please let us know if you have not been receiving our Flocknote emails. We may not have your email on file, and we occasionally send out an email or text important information about opportunities to serve and activities coming up. Thank you for helping us keep up-to-date!

Calling All Crafters!

The Council of Catholic Women at St. Bernard Catholic Church will hold its 40th annual Craft Fair on Saturday, November 5th. This is a popular and much anticipated event with great attendance! Contact Coreen Glen at (406) 248-6535 to reserve craft table space.

St. Pius X Knights of Columbus Council 9976

Brother Knights, our monthly meeting will be held Thursday, July 21 at 7:00pm in the Fellowship Hall at St. Pius X. We have decided to hold just one meeting per month through the summer months. Although we have designated this as our Officers meeting, all Knights are welcome and encouraged to attend. We will discuss several items, including coming up with date and time for our next SVdP Sack Lunch Program and also the next time we will barbecue for our homeless brothers and sisters served by SVdP. Please join us at the meeting.

Thank you!

Question: This time of year, I attend a lot of weddings. Why do Catholic weddings need to take place in a church?

Answer: Technically, there is a clause in Church law that could allow for weddings to take place outside of a church, in a suitable space under special circumstances, but it requires the rare permission of the bishop. But the meaning of marriage goes very, very deep, and the Church has a vested interest in protecting that meaning. As Catholics, we don't see a wedding as an event that needs a pleasing backdrop.

Marriage is a sacrament, both an occasion of joyful promise and symbolic solemnity. It is a spiritual event. The loving bond of marriage symbolizes the mystical union between Christ and his Church. The man and woman profess lifelong vows of fidelity, and they receive supernatural grace from God to keep their promises. Receiving the sacrament of Marriage in a church has broader symbolic meaning for the couple as well. Marriage isn't simply two people in isolation from the world around them. Marriage is the joining of families and the beginning of a new, holy mission in the life of the couple. Weddings are sacred occasions, and it's fitting that they occur in sacred spaces.

Scripture Reflection: Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Genesis 18:1-10
Psalm 15:2-5
Colossians 1:24-28
Luke 10:38-42

“Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God's unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis).” While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the “details” of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us! ©LPi

Everyday Stewardship: Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments

Be Ready for God to “Stop By”...In my experience, most people can be divided into two groups: those who are old enough to remember when you kept food on hand for company, and those who aren't. For those of you in the latter group, let me explain. Before text messaging and social media made us all unconditionally, mercilessly reachable, people would do this thing called “stopping by.” They would be passing by a friend's house, maybe on the way home from work or shopping, and they would just ... stop. With no warning. No notice whatsoever. “I was just in the neighborhood,” they would say. I remember my mother and I would do this on many a Saturday. It wasn't an everyday occurrence, but it was common enough that you had to be ready.

“Crazy,” you might exclaim. “People just appeared on your doorstep? How did you cope with the uncertainty?” Well, most of us had moms who kept a little something on hand to eat or drink that was extra nice, just in case anyone stopped by. That way, we were always ready.

Today's readings are about a lot of things: prayer, hope, redemptive suffering. They're about what it means to be a Christian, and not just what it means to do Christian things. Most of all, though, they're about readiness. If God showed up at your door, would you be ready for Him? Would you be ready for what He gives you, or what He takes away? Would you be ready for Him to interrupt the plans you have for yourself? To disrupt the idea you carry in your mind of what a servant or a steward is supposed to be? Read your Bible. Say your rosary. Go to Mass. Get to Confession. Talk to God — every day, not just when you think you need Him. That way, you are always ready. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
