Respect Life Sunday

27th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Welcome, Body of Christ, Weekend!

Second reading for this Sunday from St. Paul to the Philippians:

“Brother and sisters:

*Have no anxiety at all, but in everything,
by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving,
make your requests known to God.*

Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters,

*whatever is true, whatever is honorable,
whatever is just, whatever is pure,
whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious,
if there is any excellence,
and if there is anything worthy of praise,
think about these things.*

Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me.

Then the God of peace will be with you.”

Philippians 4:6-9

New Weekend Mass Times Begin Today!

Thank you for your patience as we add a third Mass back into our weekend schedule. The Saturday 5:00pm Mass remains the same. On Sunday we will celebrate an 8:30am Mass and an 11:00am Mass. The time between will be used to sanitize the church. We hope this was not a surprise to you as we initiated a full parish mailing, announced the new times on Flock-note, website, Facebook and made personal phone calls through our new Phone Tree ministry. We Live-stream the 8:30am Sunday Mass and it is archived after so you may watch at your discretion. God bless all in our efforts to remain safe at weekend Masses.

Care for Every Life

“Our defense of the innocent unborn needs to be clear, firm and passionate. Equally sacred, however, are the lives of the poor, those already born, the destitute, the abandoned.” Pope Francis

Children’s Ministry

Sacramental Preparation

Families, please save the date for our first parent meeting. We will be meeting at the church on Sunday, October 18, at 3:00pm. Please watch your emails for updates as we get closer to meeting time.

CCW Fleece Blankets

CCW will go ahead with the Fleece Blanket project by having ladies work on the blankets at home. If you would like to donate fleece, 2 1/2 yards of print and 2 1/2 yards of a matching solid color can be dropped off at the Parish Center during business hours until Oct. 30.

Remembrance Mass, November 5th

Our Remembrance Mass will be celebrated on Thursday, November 5 at 7:00pm. There will be no morning Mass that day. During the Remembrance Mass we incorporate the names of all who have died from our parish in the last year. Everyone is welcome to attend this special Mass.

Above: Donations for St. Vincent dePaul over just one weekend.

St. Vincent de Paul thanks the St. Pius X parish community and donors for their generosity in our recent drive for winter items. The pillows, blankets, and sleeping bags will be a great asset as we enter into our fall and winter seasons. Your support is greatly appreciated as we continue to provide our friends with these basic items. Please remember SVdP in your prayers.

Have You Been Hospitalized?

If you or someone in your family is hospitalized, please notify the parish offices, 656-2522, when you return home. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, neither our pastoral team nor our hospital volunteers can visit the hospitals and we cannot get information from them about any Catholics who may be in their facilities. Our parish nurses relied on the reports of our pastoral team and/or volunteers in order to make follow-up calls once a parishioner returned home. This ministry is so important and we as a parish community want to support our members as much as possible after returning home from hospitalization. We can also put you or your loved one on our prayer chain; and, we have prayer shawls available as well. Together in faith we can maneuver the uncharted paths of this pandemic. God bless you all.

Create a Page for the Parish Memory Book

On November 2, All Souls Day, we remember our faithful departed. One of the ways you can remember your deceased loved one is to pick up a scrapbook page in the Gathering Area this weekend or next to create a memory page to pay tribute to them. The page will be placed in the Parish Memory Book honoring your deceased loved one.

Bring the page back to the parish office or place it on the table in the Gathering area by November 1 so your page can be included in the book during the month of November.

If you created a page in previous years, you are welcome to update, change, or create a new page.

Did You Know... You can now follow us on Instagram or on Facebook for inspiration, connection, and news!

Everyday Stewardship: Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments

Gifts Given to Share

My oldest two children took piano lessons when they were younger. In fact, it was because my oldest wanted to learn to play so badly that we purchased a piano. He would use it for practice during his few years of lessons, and then my daughter took up the instrument. After a few years of lessons for each, restlessness set in and a type of indifference took over. The lessons and the practicing came to an end.

My youngest had not expressed much interest in piano when he was younger. Then when he was a teenager, he asked for lessons. He began to play and now he plays even for fun and to relax. When his siblings try to play, they are stuck with the truth that those days are gone and since they gave it up years ago, they can no longer really play. In many ways, they were given a gift, but since they did not use and cultivate it, they lost it.

God gives us gifts every day and we too often act like those gifts will simply always be there. The truth is, unlike God Himself, many of those gifts are not eternal. If we fail to acknowledge them and put them to use, we risk losing them in the end. What a shame. What gifts might be slowly slipping away from each of us due to our lack of interest and indifference? They might not be there if and when we change our minds.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

A JOURNEY IN FAITH

Are you or do you know someone who...has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic? Has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized? Was baptized in the Catholic faith as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation & Eucharist?

We offer an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. There are separate sessions for children or youth. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights and your faith story in a warm, accepting setting. To find out more, please contact Matt Low, Director of Christian Initiation at St. Pius X, 281-8506.

Why do Catholics genuflect?

Answer: Genuflection is an act of devotion that literally means “to bend the knee.” For many Catholics, it’s an almost automatic gesture that we perform before entering our pew or row of seats at Mass. But, like many of the symbols and gestures of our faith tradition, genuflecting can also be an invitation for deeper reflection.

The practice of “bending the knee” is an ancient way of recognizing the presence of someone greater than we are. It has been said that the practice dates back to the time of Alexander the Great, but it became a common part of etiquette in the royal courts of the Middle Ages. From throne rooms and palaces, it was a small step to genuflecting becoming part of the devotional lives of Christians, who used this secular gesture as a way of recognizing the presence of the One who is King of Kings, especially in the Eucharist.

Today, Catholics are asked to genuflect in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament (whether in the tabernacle or exposed on the altar during Eucharistic adoration). So, while it has become second nature to genuflect before entering your seat in church, we should pay attention to where the Blessed Sacrament is kept in each church or chapel that we visit, and genuflect in the direction of the tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. In churches or chapels in which the tabernacle is in a separate space, we are invited to simply bow toward the altar. Bowing toward the altar is our practice at St. Pius X since our tabernacle is in a separate room called the ‘Blessed Sacrament Chapel’.

In addition to genuflecting before the Blessed Sacrament, we are also instructed to genuflect before the cross used for veneration on Good Friday (during the solemn celebrations of the Lord’s Passion) and any time a relic of the True Cross is displayed for veneration. This longstanding tradition is a way of honoring the cross as the great sign of our salvation and of showing devotion to the passion of Jesus.

Remembrance Book at St. Pius X

During the month of November, the Remembrance Book will be placed near the baptismal font. Placing the book by these waters gives us hope that our beloved dead now share in Christ’s Resurrection.

You are welcome to write the names of your deceased loved ones in the Remembrance Book so others may read, remember and pray for them.

Please support our Advertisers. They provide our bulletins for no charge to the parish!

Scripture Reflection:

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 5:1-7
Psalm 80:9, 12-16, 19-20
Philippians 4:6-9
Matthew 21:33-43

Do you ever wonder why things never seem to come together? We see glimpses of consistency, equity, justice, peace, harmony, and wellbeing, but it always falls short. Human life is still expendable and manipulated, people are used for personal advancement, countries are at war, the economy continues to face turbulence, anger and frustration are widespread, and happiness is the possession of just a few and not the many. Could it be that we are serving the wrong kingdom? We keep trying to make our kingdom work and find ourselves still scratching our heads after repeatedly failed attempts to do so. It is almost as if people are saying, "we'll get it right this time if we do ...," as if some new and secret innovation has yet to be tried.

We serve God's kingdom. We may not like hearing that, but it is true. God did not make only a few of us. God made all of humanity and all of humanity is called into service. How often do we defer any of our decision making to God? Secular leaders enjoy winking at the Sacred Scriptures and using them when they advance a cause, but are they really listened to? Even those who consider themselves believers tend to sift through God's Word, taking what seems to fit and apply and discarding the rest. After all, if we were really serving God's kingdom, we would see an abundance of fruit testifying to this fact. But what's growing on the vine is anything other than good Gospel-centered fruit.

Nothing in this world or the next belongs to us. We have such a hard time believing this and live our lives as if everything belongs to us. And, the fruit does not lie. Trees that are neglected and not properly fertilized reveal that fact. They cannot keep these deep secrets from being discovered. If God's kingdom was really being served, then life would have looked much differently after the crucifixion. By now, there would be plenty of fantastic fruit to harvest in abundance: faith, hope, love, prudence, temperance, justice, and fortitude. Do we see these in abundance around us? Why not?

Still we grapple with ownership, privilege, status, and the protection of our rights. It's all about us and what we want, think we need, and expect to acquire. When did this change of focus occur? We may be struggling with this since humanity's day in the garden and have never understood that the focus cannot be on us and the apple but on God and God's justice. Maybe the only answer is that the Kingdom be taken from us and given to someone who is willing to do a better job. Is that the fate we really want?

Thank You from Family Service Inc.

Dear St. Pius X Parishioners,

Thank you so much for your generous kindness with your monthly gift to Family Service, Inc. You provide the opportunity to adapt and be flexible in our ever-changing world!

The pandemic put a very sharp point on towns and organizations in southcentral and eastern Montana with very few grocery options and little or no food bank service. In need, many reached out to us, asking for emergency help. Today, we are adapting and being flexible to meet the needs of those just beyond our county. We are now spending hundreds of hours each month working with many outlying towns in Yellowstone, Fergus, Carbon, Custer, Stillwater and Big Horn counties.

So with your support, families in a wide swath of our region are receiving good, nutritious food and locally, your gift supports even the bigger, continuing efforts to help families and seniors regain stability. I hope that makes you feel very pleased—you are giving a remarkable gift of hope, dignity and well-being.

With gratitude and hope, Stacy Brown, Executive Director
